What is Faith Community Nursing?

Faith community nurses are licensed, registered nurses who practice holistic health for self, individuals, and the community using nursing knowledge combined with spiritual care. They function in paid and unpaid positions as members of the ministerial team in a variety of religious faiths, cultures and countries. The focus of their work is on the intentional care of the spirit, assisting members of the faith community to maintain and/or regain wholeness in body, mind and spirit.

Course Overview

The purpose of this course is to provide registered nurses with specialized knowledge and skills for professional practice in a faith community setting.

The core curriculum focuses on:

- Spirituality
- Professionalism
- Holistic Health
- Community

Course Description

The Foundations of Faith Community Nursing Course is a nationally-endorsed curriculum from the Westberg Institute for Faith Community Nursing. The American Nurses Association recognizes faith community nursing as a subspecialty in nursing. Faith community nursing holds the spiritual dimension as central to its practice. This course is a hybrid of virtual class meetings with independent, on-line learning experiences.
