

The Many Faces of Giving

Texas Health Resources
Foundation™

Looking Ahead in 2016

Onward and Upward

Texas Health Resources celebrated many achievements in 2015, but there is little time to sit back and reflect on our accomplishments. The work ahead of us in 2016 is arguably as transformative for Texas Health as the year this great organization was formed.

The tenets of this work are simple: we now look at everything we do through the lens of Fresh AIR: Affordability, Innovation and Reliability because this is the way consumers choose us.

People from all corners of our organization are involved in this undertaking, with frontline caregivers leading the way. These work teams, including nurses and physicians, are focused on refining processes and implementing best practices to strengthen the organization.

The compass that guides this work and sets the foundation of our culture is The THR PromiseSM: Individuals Caring For Individuals, Together[®]. Because of that culture, Texas Health was recognized last year as the No. 1 health care organization to work for in the United States by Fortune. We were also recognized as the No. 2 workplace for women and the No. 3 workplace for diversity in the nation. This external validation confirms what we observe each day and what our patients and visitors feel – Texas Health is a great place to work and receive care.

We hope to broaden the access North Texans have to that care by integrating with UT Southwestern to create Southwestern Health Resources, a clinically integrated network that will blend the strengths of both organizations to elevate the health and wellness of our community and respond to the challenges of a dynamic health care environment in North Texas.

If all of this wasn't enough for one year's objectives, approaching the end of our 10-year journey to transform Texas Health from an acute hospital system into a patient-centric health care system means a new 10-year strategic plan is being developed. It will address changing market forces, patient needs and consumer expectations in health care, so that Texas Health remains strong and vibrant for decades to come.

I want to personally thank those who give back to the North Texas community through philanthropic support for Texas Health. The achievement of these exciting challenges in 2016 and beyond would not be possible without your unwavering support and generosity.

CEO, Texas Health Resources

“We hope that through our giving we can help ensure the permanency of the programs and institutions to which we give. A gift, whether of time or resources, is a visible and tangible vote of confidence for initiatives we feel have real significance in the community.”

Dr. Henry and Sandra Estess,
Hawthorne Society donors

For more than 45 years, Dr. Henry Estess and his wife Sandra have played an integral role in supporting the Texas Health system. Dr. Estess served on the medical staff at Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital Dallas from 1970 to 1997, and has taken several leadership roles such as a founding member of the Presbyterian Healthcare Foundation and founding president of the medical staff at Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital Plano.

As long-time friends of Texas Health, the Estess family also has a deep and enduring philanthropic relationship with our hospitals. Whether they are supporting pastoral services or capital improvements, Henry and Sandra are dedicated to addressing the greatest health needs of the communities we serve.

“Health, religion and education are subjects that are very important to us. We are motivated to give to help support areas that our family is passionate about. We have personal connections to Harris and you just can’t find better health care anywhere.”

Dr. Jim and Colleen Stewart,
Farrington-Thompson Society donors

Dr. Jim Stewart vividly remembers his first childhood experience at Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital Fort Worth. His grandfather was in the hospital for cataract surgery and he was there to offer support during the two-week recovery period. The medical field has drastically changed since then, but Jim still remembers that moment like it was yesterday. Since then, Jim and his wife, Colleen, have made it their mission to support advancements and new milestones in health care and research. The philanthropic couple started giving to Texas Health Fort Worth more than 22 years ago funding hospital projects like palliative care and the cardiac center, and Dr. Stewart is a former trustee of the Texas Health Resources Foundation.

Circle of Giving Society

Circle of Giving members are benefactors who supported key strategic initiatives of Texas Health Resources Foundation, and the hospitals we serve, through outright gifts, event sponsorships or pledge payments between January 1, 2015 and December 31, 2015.

“I was raised here in Stephenville, and the hospital has served our community so well. We wanted to be supportive of Texas Health’s commitment to our community, and also recognize the long service of the Terrell family.”

Nancy and Brad Allen,
Circle of Giving Society donors

As life-long residents in the community, Brad and Nancy Allen have a special affinity for Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital Stephenville. Not only were their three children—Sarah, Joel and John Matt—born at the hospital, but Brad’s mother, Helen, worked there as a nurse.

Following in Helen’s footsteps, the family shares a commitment to health care by providing services to Texans with disabilities through their company, Rock House Inc., and the Stephenville community through their volunteer work.

When the Allens learned that Texas Health Stephenville planned to expand their emergency department, they were honored to support the project and to name the nurses’ station in Helen Allen’s honor as a reminder of her service.

"I truly believe in Texas Health Resources. As both an employee and a patient, I have seen how much the staff focuses on quality care. I am motivated to give to Texas Health because I know they really care about their patients."

Cathy Starnes,
Medical staff coordinator and
Circle of Giving Society donor

If you were to look up the word "loyal" in the dictionary, you might see some variation of the following: "showing complete and constant support for someone or something." In our eyes, Cathy Starnes embodies this definition. Cathy has dedicated her time and talent in medical staff services to Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital Hurst-Euless-Bedford and Texas Health Arlington Memorial Hospital since 1985. She has extended her resources by giving to Texas Health for more than 20 years through the Associates employee giving campaign, and truly cares about the patients, physicians, nurses and families. As an HEB resident, Cathy has had countless family members in and out of the hospital and always feels confident that they are in good hands.

“Over the years, I’ve enjoyed helping the hospital. Giving to Texas Health is a way to help the community of Denton as a whole.”

Bill Patterson,
Texas Health Denton past Board Chair and Circle of Giving Society donor

Bill Patterson carries on a family legacy of philanthropy in Denton that began with his parents, Fred and Patsy.

Publisher and CEO of the Denton Record-Chronicle since 1999, Bill faithfully served on the Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital Denton Board of Trustees for 24 years, including two terms as chair. In 2015, he also received the J. Andy Thompson Award for his dedicated service to the hospital.

As a donor to Texas Health Denton for the past eight years, Bill sees his annual contribution as an opportunity to help the hospital meet its greatest needs. Although his tenure on the board has officially ended, he looks forward to an ongoing relationship with Texas Health and continuing to help the citizens of Denton however he can.

“We support Texas Health Fort Worth because the NICU was home to our micro preemie twins for the first months of their lives. We want to show our gratitude to the doctors, nurses and staff who compassionately led us through that journey. The care our children received in the NICU is the reason we have healthy kids at home with us today.”

Maggie and David Cleveland, Birthday Buddies supporters and Chairs of the 2016 Breakfast with St. NICUlas event

Maggie and David Cleveland’s twins were born at just 29 weeks old and each weighed barely two pounds. Throughout their journey in the Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital Fort Worth Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU), Maggie and David were amazed by the caring staff so they set on a mission to give back – as a family. In lieu of gifts for their second birthday, Mary Michael and Tucker joined our Birthday Buddies program and asked friends and family to make a monetary donation to benefit the NICU. To further support quality care in the NICU, the Cleveland’s volunteered to chair the 2016 Breakfast with St. NICUlas to create awareness throughout their community. They hope to help families who were in the same situation as they were.

Birthday Buddies

Birthday Buddies is the Texas Health Resources Foundation’s youngest philanthropists. These members, in lieu of birthday presents, asked their birthday party guests to bring a monetary donation to benefit the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital Fort Worth.

BIRTHDAY BUDDIES

In Remembrance

Texas Health Resources Foundation fondly remembers our gracious donors in the last five years who passed away in 2015. Their spirit of giving and dedication to bettering their community has helped to foster Texas Health’s Mission.

You can read more on the next page on how our Hawthorne Society members made a difference for the patients and families in our community who Texas Health is privileged to serve.

Doris and Robert Klabzuba were champions of our Texas Health Harris Methodist hospitals – if there was a need, they were always there to support it. They both had a passion to improve the quality of health care for everyone and that began for Mrs. Klabzuba even prior to marrying Mr. Klabzuba when she served as a nurse's aide for Dr. Charles Harris; namesake of Harris Methodist Hospital. Dedicating her time and talents, Mrs. Klabzuba was a founding member of the Doris Kupferle Breast Center and a charter member of the Kupferle Health Board, which hosts our annual Puttin' on the Pink Fashion Luncheon.

The Klabzubas' commitment to the hospitals began in 1978 with a gift to help support the establishment of the CareFlite helicopter ambulance service and throughout the years, they made numerous gifts to benefit the Klabzuba Cancer Center, Klabzuba Imaging Center and the Harris Methodist Heart Center located in the Klabzuba Tower at Texas Health Fort Worth.
