Our Mission
To improve the health of the people in the communities we serve.

Texas Health Resources is one of the largest faith-based, nonprofit health systems in the United States. The health system includes Texas Health Physicians Group and hospitals under the banners of Texas Health Presbyterian, Texas Health Arlington Memorial, Texas Health Harris Methodist and Texas Health Huguley. The system also includes outpatient facilities, satellite ERs, home health and preventive and fitness services to provide the full continuum of care for all stages of life.

More than 24,000 employees of wholly owned/operated facilities and consolidated joint ventures.

More than 350 points of access in North Texas

- 18 acute care hospital locations
- 5 short stay hospitals
- 3 rehabilitation hospitals

More than 80 outpatient facilities, surgery centers, behavioral health facilities, fitness centers and imaging centers

More than 250 other community access points, including THPG clinics, doctors’ offices and Minute Clinics

More than 4,000 licensed hospital beds (approximately 3,400 operated/available beds)

More than 6,200 physicians with active staff privileges

Texas Health Physicians Group: employs 585 physicians and more than 350 physician assistants and nurse practitioners

$4.68 billion in total operating revenue (FY 2017)

$8.89 billion in total assets (FY 2017)

$852 million of charity care and community benefits reported to the State of Texas (FY 2017)

Service area
Texas Health’s points of access serve more than 7 million residents in 16 counties throughout the North Texas region: Collin, Cooke, Dallas, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Grayson, Henderson, Hood, Johnson, Kaufman, Parker, Rockwall, Somervell, Tarrant and Wise.

Southwestern Health Resources
Southwestern Health is a clinically integrated network, formed in 2016, that brings together UT Southwestern Medical Center and Texas Health Resources to provide increased access to a full spectrum of health care services – from primary prevention to specialized care – for the people of North Texas. Southwestern Health is made up of a 30-facility hospital network as well as an expansive network of physicians and caregivers (UT Southwestern faculty, Texas Health employed and community).

Health plan
In 2016, Texas Health and Aetna created a jointly-owned health plan company, the first of its kind in North Texas, that focuses on improving quality, affordability and the overall consumer experience. By combining Texas Health’s high-quality providers and investment in population health management with Aetna’s health plan expertise, care management capabilities and analytical insights, employers and consumers in North Texas will benefit from more affordable, high-quality and better-coordinated care.
More facts and figures

Accountable care organizations
The Southwestern Health Resources Accountable Care Network (ACN) ACO manages almost 350,000 lives in North Texas. In 2016, the ACO was among the top 10 Medicare Shared Savings Program (MSSP) in the United States for cost-effectiveness, saving $17.3 million on 86,000 covered lives. In 2017, it was also one of 44 ACOs nationally participating in the Next Generation program through CMS, which saved an estimated $24 million on 63,000 covered lives.
